

Current Opportunities in China's Burgeoning Sectors

Wednesday, March 7, 2012 12:00-2:00 p.m.

University club of Montreal
 2047 Rue Mansfield Montreal, QC H3A 1Y7

As Executive Director of the Canada China Business Council (CCBC), Sarah Kutulakos advises and guides Canadian firms doing business in China. Her presentation will offer insight into the Prime Minister's recent trip to China, and examine new opportunities for Canadian companies moving forward. Addressing some of the lessons that she has learned through her work assisting private companies, organizations and government trade missions to grow their presence in Chinese markets, Sarah will discuss the steps that Canadian companies and investors need to take to achieve success in China.

Members of CCBC, along with other non-member guests are invited to purchase tickets for this important event. Sponsorship information is available upon request. If you have any questions, please contact Travis Joern at (514) 880-3807 or by e-mail at travis@ccbc.com.

Ms. Sarah Kutulakos
Executive Director, Canada China Business Council

Sarah Kutulakos joined the Canada China Business Council (CCBC) in 2007 and has since revitalized CCBC's role as Canada's premier bilateral trade and investment organization. Sarah has re-centered the Council's activities around providing business services, catalyzing business growth and activity, and advocating for stronger Sino-Canadian bilateral trade and investment.

Prior to joining CCBC, Sarah worked for 11 years in marketing, product development, and management with a major multinational corporation, where she had multiple assignments involving China. Sarah has led both established and start-up businesses within the context of a global corporation and has broad emerging market business experience. A fluent Mandarin speaker, Sarah frequently speaks on China issues, including marketing, trade, investment, and Canada-China relations.

Ticket Price: $69.50 (tax included) for CCBC member and non-member
