China International Import Conference 2013 and Canada Export Seminar & Matchmaking

Date: June 25-26, 2013.

Venue: Beijing International Hotel

Canadian companies seeking export to China will have an opportunity on June 25-26 to profile their export product, technology and service directly to Chinese importers and buyers. Canada China Business Council (CCBC), Chinese IT Professional Association of Canada and Association of Chinese Senior IT Professionals are collaborating with the China Council for the Promotion of International (CCPIT) to organize the “Canada Export Seminar & Matchmaking” within the 2nd China International Import Conference which will be held on June 25 & 26 in Beijing. The conference aims at broaden the awareness of import needs in China market, and promote China’s imports from other countries.

The 2-day conference featuring an opening ceremony, plenary and sector sessions (machinery, electronics, mining and metallurgical, clean energy, energy saving and environment protection and consumer goods) will provide the following benefits to the attendees:

- Discover new export opportunities in China markets.
- Identify trade partners in China
- Understand Chinese government regulations and services that support international business to export to China.

The half-day “Canada Export Seminar & Matchmaking” will give you an opportunity to introduce Canadian Export market, products, technology and service to Chinese importers and buyers. During the seminar, any Canadian firms seeking export will be briefly introduced to the audience and invited to join the matchmaking session free of charge.

Limited Sponsorship opportunities for the Seminar are available. Please contact the local organizers/ coordinators for details.
